FOR A LONG SIEGEToday's cabled bulletin to H. Hack-seriously ill in Dresden, following an operation, is that there is no change.

The message adds that Mr. Pfotenhauer will have to remain under the doctor's care for several months. Mr.
Hodick says that this shows that the operation must have been an extremely critical one.

Governor has proclaimed martial law

AFTER LONG VOYAGEIn tow of the tug Hercules, the pontoon, which is to carry the giant floating crane destined for use at Pearl Harbor, arrived here early this afternoon. Tug and tow reached here in good condition, after a somewhat tiresome voyage from San Francisco.
The pontoon, which is a huge affair, also as unwieldy to tow as the caisson of the drydock which arrived here some months ago, also brought by the Hercules, was launched nearly a month ago at the Union Iron Works.
It will be moored alongside the navy dock, and the framework of the crane assembled and erected in this harbor, and later towed to Pearl Harbor. The crane itself is the largest floating crane in the world, and its assembling will be watched with interest.A Line of

FORT and MERCHANT STREETSHILO RESIDENT TITANIC VICTIMHILO, Sept. 27.—Though the Titanic disaster took place many months ago it has been within the last few days that news has come to the effect that a former resident of this city was among the victims of the great tragedy in the White Star liner. Letters received in this city last week from the British consul in Honolulu have developed the fact that William Mor-ly, who was well known here, was among those who went down on the steamer when it collided with a mass of ice.Morly was a carpenter by trade and worked in this city for some time on both the Masonic Hall and the Hack-feld building. He was a quiet and industrious young man and saved enough from his salary to make a trip to his home, which was in London. It was while returning from this journey, and bound for Hawaii, that he lost his life in mid-ocean. The news of his death and of how it occurred came through inquiries made by the British consul, who had been asked to see if the young man had left any estate here, or possibly had an account in one of the local banks.MR. AND MRS. Y. AKAI TO
